

Course Title: 40 Hadith Pertaining to Children

Course Faculty: Faculty of Tarbiyyah Studies

Course Description:

“O you who have believed, protect yourselves and your families from a Fire whose fuel is people and stones, over which are [appointed] angels, harsh and severe; they do not disobey Allah in what He commands them but do what they are commanded.” [66:6]

It is the responsibility of every parent to ensure that their children are raised upon correct Islamic teachings. The religion places great emphasis concerning their upbringing since they will be the carriers of Islam. It is these children that will preserve the Deen in the future and so it is imperative that we pay attention to their education and upbringing in order to raise a generation of good Muslims. If they are set aright they will support the religion of Islam – spreading it and calling to it. For this reason it is vital that we are well-equipped with the knowledge and tools required to bring about an upright righteous generation who will, by the permission of Allah, bring greater good and benefit with the following generation.

This course deals with the various rulings and etiquettes pertaining to children and is based on a compilation of Ahadith entitled ‘40 Hadith Pertaining to Rulings & Etiquettes of Children’, collected by ‘Aadil al-Ghaamidi.

Course Overview:

In this course you will learn:

- Why is it important to instill Emaan and Tawhid in our children?
- What are the rulings pertaining to children in the hereafter?
- What are the benefits of knowledge?
- What is the ruling on the urine of a child?
- Are the five daily prayers obligated upon them?
- If a mother miscarries, is the unborn child still prayed over?
- What are the rulings of fasting concerning the mother and child?
- Must Zakat ul Fitr be paid on behalf of the child?
- Is the Hajj performed by an infant counted?
- What is said regarding children and Jihad?
- Can a father marry off his young daughter without her consent?
- What is the punishment for the child that carries out a criminal act?
- Can children inherit?
- What are the rulings relating to the suckling of a child?
- What are the new born rites?
- How does one determine that a child has reached puberty? What are the signs?

Course Duration:

This course is taught over a 3 month period, each week’s lesson consists of 2 hours class time.

Course Materials:

A course pack containing the translation of “40 Hadith Pertaining to Children” will be provided. You should also bring a notepad and pen to take notes.

Homework:

For 2 hours of class work you will need to do at least 1 hour of homework (rewriting notes and assignments set by your tutor) and revision each week.

Examinations:

The final examination for what you will have learnt throughout this course, takes place on week 11, this consists of a 60 Minute written paper. The pass mark for this course is 50%.

Certificates:

You will receive an in-house certificate recognising your achievement in this course.

Course Fees:

Students/Unemployed: £65

Employed: £75

That’s only £2.71/£3.41 per hour!

Progression:

After studying this course you should consider studying the following:

- 40 Hadith of Imam An Nawawi
- Fiqh Pertaining to Women
- The Upright Moral Character

Additional Reading Material:

- The Ideal Muslimah, by Dr. Muhammad Ali Al Hashimi
- Encyclopedia of Islamic Jurisprudence Concerning Muslim Women

Registration:

You can register online now securely via PayPal or if you prefer you may visit us at our office during our registration dates (see registration timetable) where registration staff will be awaiting to welcome, assess, advise and help you register.